

Caecus Graciano Selección Familiar 2018

Pago de Larrea

Rioja, Spain

Grapes: Graciano (100%)

Profile: Deep purple on the center, with blue hues on the rim. Very aromatic with wild blueberries, aromatic herbs and anise, mint and eucalyptus. The tannins are assertive and the wine has very good acidity, so the time in bottle will increase the quality.

Pairing: Grilled octopus, goat, lamb, paella, duck, beet salad, chorizo, steak tips, Philly cheese steak
Cuisines: Spanish, Provençal, American, Portuguese/Brazilian Churrascaria

Alc: 13.3%

Sulfur: 50ppm

Vineyard Age: 5 years

Production Size: 500 bottles

Caecus Graciano Selección Familiar 2018

Pago de Larrea

Rioja, Spain

Grapes: Graciano (100%)

Profile: Deep purple on the center, with blue hues on the rim. Very aromatic with wild blueberries, aromatic herbs and anise, mint and eucalyptus. The tannins are assertive and the wine has very good acidity, so the time in bottle will increase the quality.

Pairing: Grilled octopus, goat, lamb, paella, duck, beet salad, chorizo, steak tips, Philly cheese steak
Cuisines: Spanish, Provençal, American, Portuguese/Brazilian Churrascaria

Alc: 13.3%

Sulfur: 50ppm

Vineyard Age: 5 years

Production Size: 500 bottles

